Re: Reclamation Demand

Dear Ms. Gaskins:

Pursuant to section 2-702 of the Uniform Commercial Code (in Michigan, MCL 440.2702) and section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 546(c)), Valeo Switches and Detection Systems, Inc. ("Valeo") demands reclamation of all goods (the "Reclamation Goods") delivered by Valeo and/or its affiliates and received by Delphi Corp. and/or its affiliates ("Delphi") within the 10-day period preceding the commencement of Delphi's bankruptcy case on October 8, 2005. The Reclamation Goods are more specifically identified in the invoices and/or shippers attached hereto.

Unless an alternative resolution is reached by and between Valeo and Delphi, Delphi is forbidden from selling or using any of the Reclamation Goods, and any such sale or use by Delphi will be in violation of Valeo's rights in and to the Reclamation Goods.

Valeo is prepared to discuss with Delphi terms which would protect Valeo's reclamation rights and under which Valeo might permit Delphi to sell or use the Reclamation Goods.

Best regards,

Jerry Dittrich
General Manager
